

29th JEWISH CULTURE FESTIVAL

The Earth

Kraków, June 21st – June 30th, 2019

Program report

29th Jewish Culture Festival was dedicated to the earth, as to the place that creates our identity, preserving memory and creating the future.

Janusz Makuch, founder and Director of the festival says:
Together we share the Earth, this land, this soil regardless of the faith (or lack of faith) that divides us. (...)Polin/Israel – the promised land, land which was taken away, land of milk and honey, land of blood and ashes, blessed land, damned land, God's land, Satan's land, human land, inhuman land, fertile land, barren land, land of mercy, land of hatred, land filled with fruit, land of stones and bones, hospitable land and lost land. Graveyard land. Recovered Land. Mother Earth. (...) This year, we are putting up our tent on the land of Kazimierz where the Ashkenazi civilization flourished for ages.

Festival Tent was a heart and a center of the festival: a square at the corner of Wąska and Józefa streets, covered with the roof was a venue for most of the festival events, housing also Cheder café and festival's chill-out zone. The reception of the tent was extremely good – no other festival's project from the previous years was not complemented as much as the tent. It integrated not only festival audience and the artists, but also embraced and empowered a local society. Compared to an ancient agora, the Festival tent brought completely new quality to the cultural and social lives of Kazimierz as well as of Kraków.

29th JCF was held under the honorary patronage of HE Andrzej Duda President of the Republic of Poland. Małopolska Region was a main partner of the 29th JCF.
